[REDACTED] to assume membership on this Panel.

I am now informed that IDA is willing to furnish the services of these two gentlemen on a non-reimbursable basis, and that additionally IDA will underwrite any incidental expenses for travel that their associates may incur. Your willingness to participate to this degree in assisting us to study and resolve a pressing national problem is worthy of commendation.

Should there be need during the anticipated ninety-day tenure of this Panel to change the financial basis under which your associates are made available to us, please feel at liberty to communicate with me.

Sincerely yours,
